Theme:

Wondering what to do with your summer or after graduating? Interested in moving to Taiwan for your career? Come learn about internships and permanent professional positions, along with possibilities to launch your next career in Taiwan. ITRI (Industrial Technology Research Institute), Taiwan's High-Tech Center (www.itri.com) with 6,000 + researcher/staff , and other semi-governmental and private industries, may have the right opportunities for you!

ITRI USA would like to meet you and talk about high-tech opportunities in Taiwan.

Dr. Joseph Yang, head of the SF TECO Science & Technology Division, will also be at this event to answer questions in regard to the 50 Summer Internships 2005, sponsored by the National Research Council (NRC) of Taiwan (see next event).

Your host is George Chao, Lead for 2nd generations Taiwanese Americans of NATEA, who would like to mingle with you and seek your suggestions for activities and events of interest to you.

Refreshments will be provided.

Event: 2005 Summer Internships in Taiwan

Deadline: April 20, 2005 (For Dr. Yang, which can be slightly delayed, actual deadline is May 2005)

Interested students, please log into <http://www.nsc.gov.tw/otsp/> for the details of the program. Because of the 4/20 deadline, it is important to go online ASAP. For questions, please plan to attend the 4/16 2-4 pm Event at the TECO South Bay Culture Center, 1269 Forgewood Avenue, Sunnyvale, CA 94089.
